HOAGLAND'S
NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!
W. E. COOPER
HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent, and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive
Carriage Factory,
Corner of Second and Morrison Streets.
He respectfully refers to the following
CARD.
"Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling, invented by H. R. Hoagland, we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used.
It fastens without bolt or screw, and is therefore, easily and speedily separated. It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant, and is convenient, safe and secure.
It is easy to change to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use, and with small expense. We have come to the conclusion to use this new invention ourselves and recommend its use in all cases. We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent, heretofore considered the best in use.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO SEPTEMBER 24.

Counterfeiters Arrested.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 23.—Capt. Leonard, a famous counterfeiter, was arrested this morning. Several thousand dollars of well executed counterfeit National Bank notes of various dimensions, were found on his person.

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 23.—Henry Marchand was arrested by detectives yesterday. A large quantity of nickel coins and dies for making them, were found in his premises. It is believed Marchand is the leader of a band of counterfeiters in the West.

New York News.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—The suspension of the stock firm of Vanden Venter is announced. One of the junior partners, named Headly, has absconded with at least $100,000 in securities held by the firm, leaving the books in such a condition that the firm is unable to ascertain the correct state of their affairs. They asked indulgence of the Stock Exchange for the present, which was granted.

A special dispatch from Liverpool says the amount of specie known to have been shipped to New York within the past three days amounts to $1,000,000.

A Cuban fillibustering party of seventy-five men, embarked yesterday on a steam tug, but failed to go to sea.

S. J. Goodenough, publishes a card denying allegations of fraudulent transactions in purchasing stores for the Methodist Book concern. He desires the public to await his proof of their falsity.

Four vessels recently left this port laden with firearms. They are on the point of starting with a cargo that consists of 125,000 Enfield and 22,500 Springfield rifles, purchased on account of the Porte by the Ottoman Minister.

The Sun to-day says that in every respect the action of General Sickles since he has been charged with the Cuban negotiations in the fulfillment of his instructions, he has done what he was ordered to do. The end is near at hand.

Murder in Wisconsin.

MILWAUKIE, Sept. 23.—R. H. Davis, a miller of Lomonwier, Wisconsin, was murdered and robbed last night, near Lomonwier.

Universalist Convention.

BUFFALO, Sept. 23.—The National Universalist Convention, was occupied this forenoon in discussing the report of the Centenary Committee, which was unanimously adopted. Asa Saxe, of Rochester, was elected General Secretary of the Convention. Rev. Dr. Brooks, of Philadelphia, was made Trustee in place of Rev. D. H. Seb, deceased. The next meeting will be held at Gloucester, Massachusetts, next September, where the first Universalist Church was established in America. Adjourned sine die.

National Capitol Convention.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 24.—The executive committee of the National Capitol Convention, with members of the press and other citizens, held a meeting to-night. The Governors of the following States have responded to the movement and will send delegates: Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Nebraska, Oregon, Nevada, Arkansas, Louisiana and Missouri. The Governors of Maine and Indiana decline to appoint delegates, but the latter State will be represented. A large number of distinguished public men are expected to be present.

Accident at Pittsburg.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 24.—In a grocery store at Allegheny last night a barrel of burning fluid ignited, while the proprietor was drawing from it, and some firemen were in the upper part of the building. The barrel exploded and five men were seriously burned and otherwise injured.

Postmistress Appointed.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—Mrs. Lucy Morehead Porter, of Covington, has been appointed Postmistress at Louisville, Ky., vice Speed.

Important Patent Case.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 24.—Judge Swain, in the U. S. Circuit Court to-day granted an injunction in the case of H. and J. L. Blandy against Thos. Griffith and Francis Webge for infringement of patent for improvement of portable engines. The case involves interests to the value of $250,000.

Good Templars Platform.

ROCHESTER, Sept. 24.—The Grand Lodge of Good Templars yesterday adopted a platform which says: The solid and great principle of our Order is in the assumption that every Templar will do all he can both by precept and example to abolish the sale and use of intoxicating drinks. The doctrine of prohibition for each individual and for society stands first in the teachings of the order. While we are not a political organization, but rather an institution to educate the people to political action, the Good Templar, in discharge of his duties as a citizen, should recognize the claims of his obligation and do all in his power to rescue and force restriction and a prohibitory Legislature. The time has not come for the organization of a political party on this issue, but the time has come for every Templar to engage in temperance, keeping in mind that we can labor for the largest immediate results not impracticable. It is evident that prohibition is now presented to us as the first available work to be done.

Oil Train Burned.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—Last night an oil train on the Erie railroad took fire three miles west of Bergen City. Before any cars could be detached or removed the entire train was enveloped. Twelve tank cars, filled with oil, were burned, involving a loss of about $30,000. The train was on fire in several places at midnight. The Penn Horn Oil Works are safe.

Miscellaneous.

ALBANY, Sept. 23.—It is reported that Adam Van Allen, cashier of the National Bank of Albany, was arrested this afternoon charged with defrauding the Government by issuing cancelled revenue stamps. He was held to bail before the U. S. Commissioner.

LEAVENWORTH, Sept. 24.—At the National Pomological Convention recently held at Philadelphia, a gold medal was awarded to Kansas for the best apples and pears on exhibition.

ALTONIA, Pa., Sept. 24.—The California Pioneers passed through here this evening, on route to New York.

WORCESTER (Mass.), Sept. 23.—The speech of Gen. Butler at the dinner of the Agricultural Society, to-day was entirely of a non-political character.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 24.—James Bell, the negro supposed to have killed John Henry Green in a shooting affray in this city, last Monday was arrested to day at Bethel and brought to this city.

HARTFORD, Sept. 24.—A man calling himself Col. T. B. Michalowski, who claims to have been a soldier in a New York regiment, also one of Col. Ryan's Cuban force, was arrested to-day on charge of swindling, having attempted several confidence operations, in one case receiving $180 in drafts on the United States Treasurer.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

MADRID, Sept. 22.—Republican papers report violence at Taranscha.

A treaty of commerce between England and Spain will soon be completed.

The first subject of discussion before the Cortes will be the choice of a King. Thus far the King of Portugal seems to be favorably looked on.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 22.—The Porte persists in his demands on the Viceroy in regard to the power of the latter to raise loans, and he refuses to make any concessions.

LONDON, Sept. 22.—The Standard thinks the loss of Cuba and perhaps Porto Rico will be the certain result of war with the United States. Here the mischief to Spain would end, but war would cause a serious interruption of commerce in the United States, and a wholesale distraction of her business. It is not probable the American Government will interfere further in Cuban affairs.

The Telegraph estimates the declaration of Father Hyacinthe as merely one of the many manifestations revealing commotion in the Catholic Church, which promises to make the Ecumenical Council the occasion of anything but a spiritual peace.

The prospects of the cotton crop in India are favorable.

PARIS, Sept. 22.—La Temps says the noble and courageous answer of Father Hyacinthe will create an immense effect. It is truly a sign of the times. The Sycle is of opinion that the attitude of the eloquent preacher must exercise great influence in the present crisis of the Church.

The Emperor presided at the council of Ministers to-day.

Evidence is discovered leading to the belief that the woman and five children recently found dead, were murdered by the husband and eldest son of the family.

The Journal Des Debats looks upon the religious situation as fraught with serious consequences. It is said the coming council at Rome will meet only to satisfy the decision of the Most Ultramontane Committee. But the attitude of certain German and American Bishops, and the complaints of illustrious French ecclesiastics, show that the labors of the Council will not be so easy and direct as was anticipated. If the syllabus triumphs, it will be with a struggle, and the triumph can only be ephemeral.

PARIS, Sept. 22.—Prince De La Tur, the French Minister for foreign affairs, and Burlingame, have made arrangements establishing improved relations between France and China on the basis of mutual conciliation. The French Government has sent instructions to its representatives in China to act in accordance with this policy.

The specie in the Bank of France has increased 6,700,000 francs.

LONDON, Sept. 23.—Lord Westbury is appointed Lord Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals in Chancery vice Sir J. Selwyn.

The Times in an article on the cotton supply says that Mr. Ashworth and Mr. Bright by different methods arrive at the same end, namely, that nothing is wanted but more cotton. More cotton would start the mills and silence the clamors against free trade. The prostration in Lancashire demands attention. Cotton is dear because it is scarce. It is safe to say that Lancashire suffers from the loss of trade more than from the dearness of cotton. The demand for goods is less than formerly. Americans would take our manufactures as freely as we take their cotton and corn. The industry would be entirely ours and the supply entirely theirs. It is not improbable that the protective tariffs of other countries are answerable in some degree for the depression in Lancashire.

PARIS, Sept. 23.—The religious journals express grief at the letter of Father Hyacinth. The Monde says the letter justifies the fears which have long been entertained in regard to him. No such language has been heard in the French church since the middle ages. The Patrie declares that the independent language and courageous tone of his sermons have attracted much attention and have drawn on the preacher the condemnation of his superiors.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 24.—About eleven o'clock, last night, some Chinese in a gambling house on Jackson street got into a quarrel, when Ah Ho ran down Jackson street pursued by three others. He ran into a store to escape, when he was shot through the head and instantly killed. Two of the parties were shortly afterwards arrested. Another was killed in a wash house on Market street, near Second, last evening, by a blow struck with a billet of wood by a fellow-countryman.

The complaint of assault and battery against Michael Ferral, publisher of a weekly paper, preferred by Bierce, of the News Letter, was, on motion of the prosecution, dismissed to-day on payment of costs; Bierce declining to prosecute the case.

International Immigration Society.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 24.—At the meeting held this afternoon to take steps to organize an International Immigration society, a resolution was adopted providing for a committee of nine to mature a plan of operations. The committee is composed of L. L. Robinson, J. Ross Browne, L. Gattin R. G. Sneath, R. J. Booth, August Helbing, W. W. Montague, E. M. Hall and C. P. Hopkins. During the meeting Thomas Mooney made an attack on the Chamber of Commerce for employing Chinese as janitor.

A "Corner" in the Gold Market.

The sudden rise of gold to 162 in New York this morning created intense excitement in this market. The banks were besieged by persons who desired to remit gold transfers to New York, but the bankers generally refused to accede to the demand, as the result would have been to strip this market of its present limited circulating medium, and bring about a financial crisis. Wells, Fargo & Co. alone refused one one million dollars of coin shipments. Gold has tumbled to 134, and this evening orders are pouring in from New York countermanding remittances.

ANOTHER TOM THUMB.—The San Francisco Herald has the following:

"The young son of John Dougherty, Esq., a merchant of Sebastopol, arrived lately in this city with his father, and is at the Russ House. From his appearance he bids fair to become a rival of the celebrated Tom Thumb. Born in California, he is now fifteen years old. He weighs only thirty odd pounds, and stands only four inches lower than the General."

The Sun and the Earth.

CURIOUS INFLUENCE—A MAGNETIC STORM.

[From the London Spectator.]

On September 1, 1859, shortly before noon, two astronomers—Messrs. Hodgson and Carrington—one at Oxford, the other at London, were at the same instant scrutinizing a large group of sun spots. On a sudden two intensely bright patches of light appeared in front of the cluster. So brilliant were they that the observers thought the darkening screens attached to their telescopes must have become fractured. But this was found not to be the case. The bright spots indicated some process going on upon the sun's surface; a process of such activity that within five minutes the spots traveled over a spot of nearly thirty-four thousand miles. Now, at the New Observatory there are self-registering magnetic instruments which indicate the precise moments of change by which the subtle influences of terrestrial magnetism wax and wane. At one time the line traced by the pointer will be marked by scarcely perceptible undulations, indicating the almost quiescent state of the great terrestrial magnet. At another, well-marked waves along the line exhibit the pulsation of the magnetic system, influenced in a manner as yet unintelligible to the physicist. And then there is a third form of disturbance: the sharp sudden jerks of the pointer, exhibiting the occurrence of those mysterious phenomena, termed "magnetic storms." When the records of the New Observatory came to be looked over, it was found that at the very instant at which the brilliant spots of light appeared to Messrs. Hodgson and Carrington, the self-registering instruments had been subjected to the third and most significant form of disturbance—a magnetic storm began, in fact as the light broke out on the sun's surface. But this was not the only evidence of the sympathy with which the earth responded to the solar action. It was subsequently found that soon after the spots of light had appeared the whole frame of the earth had thrilled under a mysterious magnetic influence. At the West Indies, in South America, in Australia, wherever magnetic observances are systematically made, the observers had the same story to tell. In the telegraph stations at Washington and Philadelphia, the signal man received strong electric shocks. In Norway telegraphic machinery was set on fire. The pen of Bain's telegraph was followed by a flame. And wherever telegraphic wires were in action, well marked indications of disturbance presented themselves.

Even this, however, was not all. The great magnetic storm was not a mere instantaneous electric throe. Hours passed before the disturbed earth resumed its ordinary state. And thus it happened that in nearly all parts of the earth night fell while the storm was yet in progress. During the night, magnificent auroras spread their waving streamers over the sky, both in the Northern and Southern hemispheres. As the disturbed needle vibrated, the colored streamers were responsive, and it was only when the magnetic storm was subsiding that the auroral lights faded from the heavens. Now it is evident that such phenomena show the most intimate relation between those peculiar disturbances in the sun and the magnet currents of our own earth. Directly one of those changes takes place upwards of ninety millions of miles away, the electric condition of our planet is changed in some mysterious way of which our instruments, and even the condition of our sky, bear record. The pens of all our telegraphic wires may some day trace in fiery hand-writing more ominous of human destiny than was the handwriting which, during Belshazzar's feast, traced a warning on the wall of the fall of the Babylonian dynasty. Moreover, note this, that these changes in the condition of the sun take place at intervals of about eleven years. The variable star which swings round it, as well as supplying us with light and heat (apparently magnetism,) clouds, presumably eleven years, thus spots, so that it were most likely that along eleven years certain magnetic conditions recur which have not occurred in the interval. If so, perhaps the magnetic excitement of 1859 will recur, and it may be in much greater force next year—in 1870. And if it does, how are we to say what may or may not recur with it?

Even now one such epoch of magnetic change seems to be pretty near at hand. The sun has been lately exhibiting the most surprising forms of disturbance, and presenting to the eye less "fixity" of aspect than ever. Spots so vast that we must estimate their dimensions by millions of square miles have broken out from time to time, and have presented changes of figure, indicating the action of forces of inconceivable intensity. Clusters of smaller spots, extending over vast areas, have exhibited every form of disturbance known to the solar physicist, and every degree of light, from the apparent blackness (in reality only relative) of the nuclei, to the intense brilliancy of the fabulous ridges. And we now know that these appearances are not only interesting to the curious, with which, as they happen at a distance of above ninety millions of miles, practical men need not concern themselves.

A MAMMOTH TURTLE.—The Monterey Democrat, of Sept. 14th, says:

During the week, out in the bay, the whalers surprised and captured an immense sea turtle, which in figure and proportion was unlike any creature of its family ever seen by the people hereabout. Its dimensions are as follows: Length, 7 feet 6 inches (from tip to tip;) width of body, 3 feet 8 inches; fore flippers, 3 feet 3 inches; hind flippers, 17 inches, 1 foot through and weighing 700 to 800 pounds. It took eight men to lift the monster, which was exceedingly very fat. What distinguished the animal from others of his race was the shape of his upper shell, which was deeply fluted or corrugated. The head had a hawkbill mouth, and the extraordinary length of his flippers indicated that it was purely marine in its habits. The first idea of its captors was to send it to San Francisco for exhibition, but unfortunately for that project, the wound from the harpoon employed for taking it speedily proved a mortal one.

Mr. Bessemer, whose works are so famous for his steel manufacture, has made a suggestion in regard to lighting coal mines which seems worthy of attention. He purposes to light the mines completely as a workshop, rendering lights in the hands of the miners unnecessary. This he would do by burning common gas under pressure, the jets being inclosed in iron boxes, with a bull's eye of thick glass in one side of each, and throwing a bright light to every part of the mine. All danger of explosion, so far as these lights are concerned, would be at an end; and if miners could be persuaded to do without lights beyond this supply, which would be sufficient for all working purposes, explosions would be completely avoided. The gas would be made above ground and under the command of a party specially set apart for the purpose, and its cost is estimated at eight cents per ton.

The respectable public has of late been horrified, and Democratic papers have been supplied with congenial reading matter, by frequent reports of atrocities in Georgia on white families of which negroes were the alleged authors. The Savannah Republican—which is Republican only in name—says, however, that the stories were fabricated by some white scoundrels who were escaping from justice, and used them as a pretext for borrowing horses to aid them in their flight. When to this is added the fact that Southern robbers and lynchers generally blacken their faces before attempting any crime, thus disguising their personality and throwing suspicion on a downtrodden race, it will be seen that accounts of "negro diabolism" in the Southern papers must be taken with a great deal of allowance.

Two boys in Springfield, Massachusetts, neither of them over 12 years old, resolved to commence life on their own account, and on a recent Thursday took their guns and a small wagon and struck out. One of the boys left a note for his parents to the effect that "we shan't drink, and can take care of ourselves all right, don't worry about us." On the following Saturday night, their courage and provisions having given out, they returned home, stating that they had passed the time in the woods.

A Sunday school teacher was giving a lesson on Ruth. She wanted to bring out the kindness of Boaz in commanding the reapers to drop larger handfuls of wheat. "Now, children," she said, "Boaz did another very nice thing for Ruth; can you tell me what it was?"

"Married her!" said one of the boys.

SATURDAY MORNING, SEPT. 25 1869.

Honesty the Basis of Credit.

It is dwelt upon by the opposition press as a peculiar hardship, that the Government is now required to pay a debt at its face in gold, though the bonds which are evidences of that debt were taken at rates that enabled the Government to realize no more than fifty or seventy-five cents in the dollar upon them. This objection is founded upon an idea which is utterly fallacious, and which has been discountenanced by almost every leading civilized nation, including our own. The same argument was made against paying our revolutionary debt in full, but the nation refused to listen to it, deeming it dishonorable; and the debt was paid at its face in gold. That the Government did not realize the full amount "nominated in the bond" was one of the consequences of the crisis in its affairs by which its credit was depreciated, and they who lent it money took the risk of its utter loss. If the Government were now compelled to borrow if could get no more than seventy or seventy-five cents in gold on each dollar of certificates of indebtedness which it might issue; yet who would argue that the Government would not be under obligation to pay these certificates at their face when they should become due? A person who goes to a bank to obtain money is often forced to submit to a heavy discount; but what would be thought of him when pay day comes if he should refuse to pay his note in full, on the ground that he did not obtain the full amount of money named therein? The fact that some of the national bonds were purchased with greenbacks makes no sort of difference, for the greenbacks had a certain determinate value in gold, and if they were worth fifty cents on the dollar the Government would as willingly have received that fifty cents in gold as the greenback dollar. Both would come to the same thing.

England's great debt was created on a principle precisely similar to that on which our own was created; yet we hear no threats from England that she will pay the holders of her securities only just so much as they gave for them. The consequence of this is that England can get money at three or four per cent., while we are forced to pay six or seven. Our repudiators tell us that we must not keep our pledges and the presumption of the law by redeeming our bonds in gold, because that would be paying the holders more than they gave for them. The same reasoning would apply much more forcibly to the English debt. For that debt was created during a period of depreciated currency, and besides, it was funded on a principle by which its amount was largely increased for the sake of a lower rate of interest. Instead of paying the rate of interest current at the time, the British Government fixed the rate low, and made the necessary variation in the principal funded. Thus it funded large sums by giving for every £100 paid in three per cent. stock to the amount of £174, and four per cent. stock to the amount of £10, thus, making itself liable to redeem the loan by paying £184 for every £100 received. Since the British debt stands in this shape, wouldn't here be a fine field for our Pendleton repudiators? There is no reason for our refusing to pay according to the pledges of our Government which will not apply with much greater force to a repudiation of the English debt. Besides, do what we will, there is no escape from paying our bonds at last in gold. The law authorizing the legal tenders and also the five-twenties, expressly states that the former shall be funded in the latter at the will of the holder. Now the bondholder whose five-twenties were redeemed in that kind of currency would have the right to re-invest in other five-twenties, and if these were redeemed, in still others, till the legal tender became par with gold, when the Government would be compelled to pay its bonds at last at their face in coin or its equivalent. It is just as easy for us to be honest in this matter as not, and a great deal more profitable. We are paying enormous interest simply because a large party among us are keeping up a continual outcry for partial or total repudiation. We shall have England's credit when we learn to adhere to England's policy of strict regard for our pecuniary obligations.

A Most Important Interrogatory.

If the Chinese, as Radicals claim, have the same right to emigrate to America that Europeans have, why ought they not to have the same right to apply for naturalization and enjoy the privileges of citizens?—Herald.

This is one of the Herald's solid chunks of wisdom. "Radicals" claim that Chinese have the same right to come to America that Europeans have, simply because our Government, when every department of it was Democratic, gave them this right. The Chinese have no right to come here or reside here which they did not possess when the Democratic party was in power—no right of any kind in this country which was not given them by that party. Here is a question which will serve as a corollary for that propounded by the Herald: When the Democratic party gave the Chinese the same right to emigrate to America that Europeans have, was it the intention of that party to allow them to apply for naturalization and to give them the privileges of citizens? If not, that party, according to the Herald, was grossly inconsistent,—just as inconsistent, in fact, as it now charges the "Radicals" with being. That paper is working itself into a fearful passion by charging upon its political opponents a policy which its own party originated, and which stands yet in the very same condition in which that party left it.

In General.

Asa Packer, Democratic candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania, is worth twenty million dollars, and pays eight dollars and ninety cents income tax. Packer ought to be particularly appreciated by those Democrats whose constant cry is against the bloated bondholders!

The Democratic State Convention of Wisconsin passed a resolution declaring that the Democratic party rejoices in every effort to broaden the basis of suffrage and extend the blessings of free institutions to all classes of people. We reckon the Wisconsin Democracy, if in Oregon, would be read out of the party.

The San Jose (Cal.) Mercury says the great want of San Francisco is a journal of ability and pluck to take the right side of the money and currency questions. "It hardly requires half an eye," says the Mercury, "to see that the bankers of San Francisco have got California by the throat—that their hard money policy operates to prevent immigration, keep up rents and interest rates, and to retard the material development of the State. Our industries are languishing for low and reasonable rates of interest, which the bankers are bound we shall not have."

The Tammany Fight.

The New York Times of the 11th inst., publishes an account of the proceedings of the "Union Democratic General Committee," of that city, called for the purpose of organizing against Tammany and sustaining Belmont. A large number of delegates were present from the minor organizations of the city. Mr. Roosevelt, editor of the Citizen was Chairman. On taking the chair Roosevelt said he would stand true to his friends in their opposition to the corruptions of the Tammany Ring. Tammany, he declared, "has inflicted great injustice, which has grown to such a magnitude that it is now almost beyond control, and has become a byword from East to West. Tammany issues its directions to the primary districts, organizes its repeaters, and at last, if necessary, directs a miscount in the votes. He was with them in single-hearted devotion to the struggle against these corruptions." The following resolutions were offered and unanimously adopted:

Whereas, A concerted effort has recently been made by the satellites of the Tammany Ring, to divert attention from the corruption and injustice of their local rule, and to elevate their ring leader, William M. Tweed, by proposing him as Chairman of the Democratic National Committee in place of August Belmont; and,

Whereas, The members of the Democratic National Committee can only be appointed by a Democratic National Convention, and the Committee appointed by the last Convention has now no duties to perform, and a new Committee will be appointed by the next National Convention to conduct the Presidential canvass in 1872, and

Whereas, The parties engaged in the farce above exposed have endeavored to give it life by exciting prejudices among Democrats, based on differences of lineage and religion; therefore

Resolved, That the Democracy of the city of New York have too much intelligence to be diverted from the consideration of the enormous corruption of our City and County government, and the iniquitous frauds practiced at our elections by and under the direction of the Tammany Ring, for the purpose of discussing what particular person shall be appointed a National Committee man in the year 1872, a matter of no present importance, and which will be settled at the proper time by the national delegates representing the Democracy of the whole State.

Resolved, That while we deem the proposition to appoint William M. Tweed, Chairman of the Democratic National Committee as simply absurd, it presents a fitting opportunity for the expression of a hope that, hereafter, in the appointment of members of the Democratic State, as well as of the National Committee, those persons only may be selected whose efforts will be faithfully devoted to the success of the Democratic party and the promotion of the public welfare, and whose past career shall offer a reasonable guaranty that they do not consider the chief object of political action to be the plunder of the public treasury, whether of the city and county or of the State or nation.

Speaking of these resolutions, Mr. Waterbury said the people were governed by a clique which walked before them as the veiled prophet—a ring fatting to a degree beyond a swine's fullness on corruption. Not by abilities given them by the Almighty, but by corruption and menace. Less than ten years ago some of its members were worth nothing. Now they are worth millions. Not alone the city funds, but the property of private corporations, and, even the public treasury is imperiled by this organization.

John A. Anthon offered the following resolution which was also unanimously passed:

"Resolved, That a committee of nine be appointed to prepare and issue an address to the Democracy of the State upon the present management and condition of the Democratic party in the city of New York."

In proposing the last resolution, Mr. Anthon spoke warmly against the tyranny and corruptions of Tammany, in which he prayed God to save the country from the nominations of a Tammany Ring. He felt, as he had no doubt all felt, that they had been oppressed and wronged by Tammany. When he went elsewhere out of the city, he heard its officials charged with corruption and dishonesty, and he could not truthfully contradict it. He had heard it said that some had thrown a firebrand into the party. If such firebrand had been thrown, Tammany had thrown it. He concluded by inviting all to unite in demanding justice from Tammany, and even though they failed to secure it, 'twas better to die the death of martyrs than to live the life of apostates.

This fight is evidently growing warmer all the time. The paper from which we have compiled this report says that the meeting represented some of the best blood and pluck of the old Democratic party, and the orators could not have spoken in less flattering terms of the Tweed regime if they had been Republicans.

The New York Independent, in replying to a correspondent who desires its opinion in relation to the utility of classical studies, finely says: "We believe that to house a young man in a university which, like Oxford, makes it his chief business to devote the best part of his youthful years to the reading of Latin and Greek authors is a great perversion of scholarly ambition and a great squandering of human endeavor. Nevertheless, to say that the Greek and Latin tongues are dead, and to forget that they still live in the vital breath of our English speech, is to cover out of sight one of the fundamental elements of a good English education. It must always be true that a man who has never opened a Latin reader or a Greek grammar, who has never mastered a Latin declension or attacked a Greek verb, must suffer all his life-long the lack of a certain fine, interior knowledge of our own immortal mother tongue. Anglo-Saxon as we are, our daily speech nevertheless resounds with a never dying echo from Greece and Rome."

Byron and His Adorers.

It is really disgusting to read some of the comments of the press on the article on Byron published by Mrs. Stowe. Many journals pronounce it "an atrocious and puritanical libel on the illustrious dead," and seem unable to find words terrible enough to give expression to their overboiling indignation. They are shocked beyond measure to hear such a crime laid to the charge of this adorable poet, who in their estimation, never could be guilty of any act of turpitude. We find in the Portland (Me.) Transcript a brief article on this subject which goes so directly to the point that we cannot refrain from reproducing it. That paper says:

It is really encouraging to the friends of good morals to see how virtuous a portion of the press has become all at once. Journals which have never hesitated to publish the most disgusting details of crim. con. cases and divorce trials, are shocked at the indecency of Mrs. Stowe's Byron article! Nothing would induce them to print anything so offensive to good morals. Their horror of Mrs Stowe's indecency is only equalled by the zeal with which they rush to the defence of the reputation of that immaculate person, George Gordon, Lord Byron. That such a thing should be said of him, of all men! It is a noticeable fact that these journals had no indignation to expend on the impudent and unblushing revelations of his mistress, recently published, in which the moral public was edified by the spectacle of an acknowledged paramour attempting to blacken the character of the faithful and abused wife of her companion in iniquity. There was nothing to shock their decency in all this, but that a charge should be brought against the chastity of Lord Byron is most shocking. It is a little singular that this high sense of decency should be confined entirely to the press on this side of the water. The English papers, while some of them charge Mrs. Stowe with a breach of confidence, find her guilty of no violation of decency. Their inference is that her statement is correct, but that more remains to be told. Seeing that Lady Byron's grandchildren thought of publishing her papers, they cannot consider Mrs. Stowe a serious offender, the London News remarking, that she has done nothing but "make a fair and valuable contribution to the veracity and exactitude of history." The statement of the solicitors of Lady Byron's family, while it betrays their anxiety to avoid any responsibility for Mrs. Stowe's statement, goes to confirm its truth. They say it is not complete or authentic, and its publication is a violation of Lady Byron's will. The inference is that the matter is directly referred to in that will and is therefore true. As the statement is said to be incomplete, further facts may yet be forthcoming. Meantime let us rejoice at the moral revolution wrought in the press of this country by Mrs. Stowe's revelation.

The Tennessee Senatorship.

The Tennessee Legislature will assemble on the 4th October. It is reported that there is a good deal of excitement about the senatorship, and that A. Johnson's chances are rapidly diminishing. The following dispatch, dated Washington, September 12th, gives an intimation as to the shape which the fight is assuming:

Advices from Tennessee from trustworthy sources indicate a formidable opposition concentrating against Andrew Johnson, rendering his election to the Senate very uncertain, if not impossible. The fact that his election would give both the Senators, the Governor, the Secretary of State, and the Superintendent of Education to East Tennessee, will unite the strength of Middle and West Tennessee in support of a representative man from either of the latter sections. It appears that East Tennessee has always had more than her proportion of public officers, and her support of Johnson, it is believed, will be the signal for his defeat. The old line Whig element, represented by the Nashville Banner, and the politicians who frequent Washington, denounce Johnson's attack upon Gen. Grant, and reminds the rebel soldiery of Grant's magnanimity at the time of Lee's surrender as a reason why they should not countenance Johnson in insulting the President. The quarrel between the Democrats and old line Whigs is represented to be fiercely waged, and it it thought must result to the disadvantage of Johnson's supporters, particularly as the recent Massachusetts and Wisconsin Democratic platforms propose to ignore obsolete issues and to fight no more battles with windmills.

Chicago is poking fun at the Cincinnati excursionists over the Pacific road. The Tribune is funny thus: "One remarkable feature of the trip is, that several of the voyagers tried to get off, leaving their wives behind. The train was arrested six times, before it got beyond the city, by as many wives of the excursionists, who had left their wives behind. Most of the gentlemen made their wills before they left, and bid farewell, which 'might be forever,' to their native hills. Pursuant to previous resolve, 'not to go by way of Chicago,' the excursionists are somewhere on the Mississippi river, trying to reach one of the Chicago railways extending to California."

SOUNDINGS OF AN EXPEDITION.—We have, before ... alluded to the landing of the bark Whistler at Cementville, for the purpose of discharging a lot of machinery for J. B. Knapp's saw mill. We had no idea, however, that the sailing of a ship to that place was entirely new a thing, as we now know it to have been. When the Whistler came in, Capt. Simpson stopped at Astoria for three days, vainly endeavoring to find some man who could point out to him the channel. He had been directed to land Mr. Knapp's machinery at Cementville and he determined to do it. Finding that he could get no pilot nor any assistance in the matter, except the help of the tug U. S. Grant, Capt. Gray, ... in case of necessity, Captain Simpson determined to make the expedition on his own responsibility. He accordingly set sail, went down to the bar and across, northward by the old channel, and thence up the river on the Washington Territory side, to Ellis' Point, where he met an impediment to further progress, in the shape of sand flat. Going on board the Grant from this point he made an exploration of the bay and sounded out a channel, finally, of about 100 feet in breadth and ... fathoms deep. Through this he took the Whistler ... fourteen feet of water, to the wharf at Cementville, and unloaded 110 tons heavy machinery and then brought her ... of the U. S. Grant, ... by the way of Sand Island ... at the mouth of the river. Capt. Simpson informs us that Mr. J. B. Knapp, the proprietor of the saw mill and cement works, is preparing to manufacture almost everything made of wood which is now imported into this country. His operations at Cementville will have a more important bearing, therefore, upon the general interests of the State than has hitherto been understood. The late expedition of the Whistler to that place has demonstrated that all vessels of ordinary draft may reach Cementville with safety, and thus the further investment of a very considerable amount of money there has been assured. Mr. Knapp feels that he may now safely enlarge his operations indefinitely, and will do so as rapidly as the development of the country will warrant.

Remitted —A letter received by J H Mitchell of this city from his partner J N Dolph dated Washington City Sept. 4th states that the judgments of the U S District Court of Oregon in the cases of the United States vs S Marks & Co and Marks & Zelinsky for selling unstamped sardines and other articles have been remitted on payment of costs, and judgment in the case of the U S vs Abraham Bros has been remitted on payment of $50 and costs.

Complimentary —Mrs St. Clair who has traveled over considerable portions of California and Oregon for the purpose of studying the development and capacities of the Pacific coast declares that in all elements and indications of high social and moral worth Oregon is far in advance of California. We have received similar compliments from almost every Eastern tourist who has visited us during the present season.

Another Killer Wanted —Our municipal organization boasts a dog killer—a very useful person who rids the community of much annoyance. Of late a need has sprung up for an the ... killer whose duty it should be to take off the numerous hogs at large in the streets. They are a greater nuisance than the dogs and nobody ought to be blamed for slaying them anywhere and without ceremony.

The feats of an apt pupil ... are almost incredible and extort the most unequivocal admiration and ... applause. Street Improvements —Taylor street, Jefferson and Morrison are to be improved by grading and planking in the usual way. Taylor is to be completed from First to Fourth, by the first day of November; Jefferson by the 30th day of November, and Morrison by the 1st day of December. The cost of improving Stark from First to Tenth has been declared to be $5 199 00.

Hudson's Bay and Puget Sound Claims — The Commissioners under the treaty of July 1863 between the United States and Great Britain, for the settlement of the claims arising out of the Oregon Treaty, have been in session for some time in this city deliberating on the claims presented to them, which claims, it is to be noted amounted to the sum of $4,308 702 in gold for the Hudson's Bay Company and $1 168 000 in gold for the Puget Sound Company. They have pronounced awards in favor of the Hudson's Bay Company of $450,000 and of the Puget Sound Company of $200 000. The Hon A S Johnson Commissioner on the part of the United States, read an elaborate opinion in support of his views and Hon. John Rose, Commissioner on the part of Great Britain, did the same, in the presence of Hon Caleb Cushing and Hon. C. D. Day, counsel for the two Governments respectively. It is probable that the judgment of the Commissioners will be published at full length. They appear to have differed somewhat in their appreciation of the value of the testimony, and to have modified their ... views as to the amounts to be awarded, rather than incur the hazard of further reference. By this decision a very long controversy, which on several occasions threatened to disturb the amicable relations of the two countries, is brought to a close. The evidence and arguments are very voluminous, upward of 170 witnesses resident in all parts of the continent and of Europe, having been examined, and the proceedings embrace 3,000 pages of printed matter. It is considered satisfactory to find that in so complicated and long-continued a national dispute the Commissioners of the two Governments have been ... in opinion. The Hudson's Bay Company and the Puget Sound Company are required by the award to release to the United States all the possessory rights belonging to them in Oregon and Washington, which were the subject matter of their respective claims against the United States.—Washington dispatch to the New York Times

The Philadelphia Press says "Although not demonstrative, the feeling of the people on the issues involved in the present campaign is intense and determined, and as a consequence the prospects are encouraging. The accounts from Western Pennsylvania are most cheering. Beyond the Alleghanies Judge Williams' name is a tower of strength, and will rally to its support hundreds of opposition voters. Governor Geary is receiving on all hands the assurances of support. The substantial men of the State feel that he represents a principle which they dare not give up."

Last Lecture and Grand Distribution at Oro Fino Hall to-night. All tickets entitled to ... Family Tickets for five persons and five drawings only three dollars.

Special Notice—The Lions to be fed —The den of lions attached to the Great World Circus will be opened for the inspection of the public at the pavilion at 3 o'clock this afternoon and till 4 o'clock. Admission 25 cents—for the benefit of Mons. Lambert's family. Before closing the den the audience will be treated to the spectacle of feeding the lions.

To Hebrew Parents—Religious Instruction —Dr. Eckman has commenced imparting religious instruction to the children of those parents who may be desirous of committing their children under the (almost paternal) care of a man whose truly religious character and simplicity have ever most extraordinarily attuned his mind to that of simple childhood, and exercised a magnetic power over the juveniles brought within his influence which unregenerate minds can never acquire. The instructions will till the new Synagogue will be completed, be given at the Washington Armory Hall next building to the Portland Library. Till then they will be given on the Sabbath and Holy days after the close of the regular morning service.

THE EQUALIZER!
Treating Disease by Vacuum
DR. H. A. BODMAN

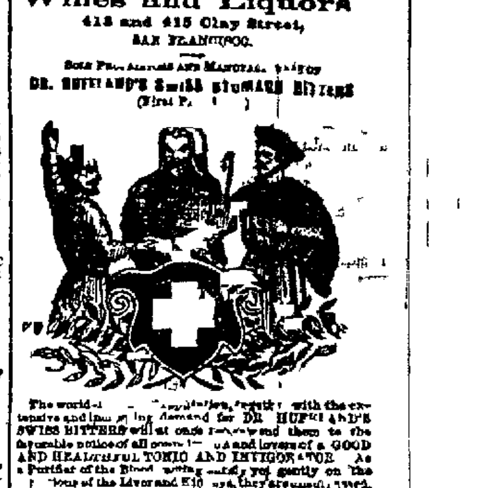

HAVING PURCHASED WADSWORTH'S EQUALIZER and the Patent Right for Multnomah county would respectfully inform his friends and the public generally that he is prepared to treat successfully those Chronic cases on whom all other means of cure have failed.
Having used this Instrument in connection with his former practice for about three months, he is satisfied that it will accomplish all that is claimed for it in curing Chronic Disease. He does not believe in the system of advertising cases cured, but any number of such may be seen on record at his office, consisting principally of ... Neuralgia, Paralysis, Curvature of the Spine, Nervous Debility, Dyspepsia, Weak ..., Asthma, Narrow Chests Weak Lungs, Weak Backs, Weak, Stiff and Rheumatic Limbs, Sciatica, Spinal Epilepsy ... St. Vitus Dance, Prolapsus Uteri, Obstructed ..., with all their concomitant Diseases, Impotency and all kinds of weaknesses of the Generative Organs, Spermatorrhoea confidently cured in from four to six weeks without medicine.
He uses other remedies when necessary, but ... generally performs the cure without the aid of any medicines whatever. It brings a greater supply of blood and nutrition to all weak parts thus creating new life and tone, and health and strength in those parts. It breaks up congestion and inflammation by equalizing the circulation throughout every part of the system.
Give it a fair trial and you will be satisfied with the results. It has been examined by the heads of physicians of all Schools of Medicine, and there has not been one dissenting voice to the correctness of the principle, all acknowledge that it fills a vacuum in the Science of Medicine.

What Commerce Needs

[From the San Francisco Chronicle]

That every sound enterprise must start with the means to secure at least a probable success is a self evident proposition and yet in this particular latter it seems at times to be practically ignored. San Francisco as the great commercial metropolis of the Pacific coast was reasonably expected to assume the position of the American entrepot of the commerce of Asia. But what has she done toward realizing this expectation? What has she done toward providing an adequate outlet for distributing the merchandise that is to flow in through the Golden Gate. She has squandered the entire product of her mines her grainfields her orchards her vineyards and her rich pastures in exchange for what she herself consumed leaving the vast markets of the East to be supplied through other channels and at lower prices than she can offer. How she could expect to carry on the commerce her geographical position entitles her to control without money faculties, is beyond our comprehension. Without extensive manufacturing industries to appreciate her natural products and without mineral products sufficient to defray the cost of her extravagance where does California now find herself? Take a simple article of produce and consumption—raw leather and manufactured boots and shoes. Instead of manufacturing the latter for ourselves as we are capable of doing, we actually import more boots and shoes in value than the whole export of wheat, which is our great staple. And this is by no means a solitary example of importation preponderating our exportation. But where are we to look for the source of this evil? We reply, in the greediness of usurers and speculators the contracted views of our capitalists. There has been no sound or reasonable basis for many of their operations, and they have viewed with distrust or timidity many enterprises that would have proved profitable to themselves and beneficial to the State. They have done the thing they ought not to have done, and left undone the things they ought to have done. The greater portion of the capital of the State has been locked up in real estate, in building-lots, and in large tracts of land at such prices and at such rates of interest that manufacturing and agricultural industries have been cramped and impeded in their just development. With all the natural advantages for sustaining perhaps the greatest commerce ever controlled by any single city in the world, San Francisco does not, for some reason, control the tithe of what she ought. There must be a reason for this. If who have failed to indicate it we should be glad to have those whose business it is to be professionally familiar with such discussions direct their attention to the matter. Can the Chamber of Commerce throw any light upon the subject?

Byron's Views of Marriage

The following are given by Captain Percy as the opinions of Lord Byron on the marriage relations "There are said his lord ship, so many indefinable, and nameless and not to be named causes or dislikes, aversion, and disgust in the matrimonial state, that it is always impossible for the public, or the best friends of the parties, to judge between man and wife. There is a relation about which nobody but themselves can form a correct idea, or have any right to speak. As long as neither party commits gross injustice towards the other, as long as neither the woman nor the man is guilty of any offense which is injurious to the community, as long as the husband provides for his offspring, and secures the public against the dangers arising from their neglected education, or from the charge of supporting them—by what right does it censure him for ceasing to dwell under the same roof with a woman who is to him, because he knows her, while others do not, an object of loathing? Can anything be more monstrous than for the public voice to compel individuals who dislike each other to continue their cohabitation? This is at least the effect of its interfering with a relationship of which it has no possible means of judging. It does not indeed, drag a man to a woman's bed by physical force; but it does excite a moral force continually and effectively to accomplish the same purpose. Nobody can escape this force but those who are too high or those who are too low for public opinion to reach or those hypocrites who are, before others, the loudest in their approbation of the empty and unmeaning forms of society, that they may securely indulge all their propensities in secret. I have suffered amazingly from this interference, for though I set it at defiance, I am neither too high nor too low to be reached by it, and I was not hypocrite enough to guard myself from its consequence."

The Memphis Avalanche, the leading Democratic journal in West Tennessee, is as zealous in its advocacy of negro suffrage, as new converts generally are. In its last issue we find the following, which sounds so much like good, sound Republican doctrine that we can hardly believe the evidence of our eyes as we read it:

"Memphis is in the heart of the great negro element of the South. We cannot rid ourselves of the colored man if we desired to do so. It is, therefore, the duty of the whites to see to it that the negro be made useful to himself, his race, and the community in which he lives. The first duty is to cease sneering at the negro. It is true, he may be illiterate but that is no fault of his. The negro should not be sneered at because he is illiterate, when white men made it a crime to educate him. Crime is usually the result of ignorance, and this fact will account for the wickedness and general worthlessness of the illiterate inferior race. The next great duty is to show that there should be no antagonism between the whites and blacks, that their interests are mutual, and their destiny the same."

DISAGREEMENT AS TO THE JUNCTION.—The Union Pacific and Central Pacific Railroad Companies cannot agree upon a junction. A telegram dated Salt Lake, September 16th says:

Yesterday afternoon the officers of the Central and Union Pacific Railroads came down to Uintah from Promontory, and separated without agreeing on a place of junction of the two roads. President Ames and Felton, one of the Citizen Commissioners, came to this city. The Union Pacific party went East, and the Central Pacific party West. Hints are given by the Central Pacific officers that the Company would commence and finish the grade and lay the rails to Ogden within ten days. The U P officers and commissioners will proceed East at the rate of 100 miles per day, to examine the road. Ames leaves to-night for the East.

A Pennsylvania maiden has been finding her sphere. Ida Lewis discovered hers in a waste of waters. The Keystone virgin succeeded in running across hers in a wheat field. Thirty acres of grain were spoiling and though there were stout men present to bind the golden sheaves there was no one to drive the jocund team. So he young woman put on a pair of well fitting gloves tied on the broad circumference of a Newport hat and mounted the seat. When she descended, the grain of the whole thirty acres lay prostrate at her feet. She perhaps did the work just as well as if she had been a votress after the order of Stanton.

From a table in one of the Nashville papers we get the following significant figures in relation to the late election in Tennessee. In twenty three counties in East Tennessee there were 2 200 more persons voted than there were voters registered. In twenty-one middle counties the excess of votes cast over the number of votes registered was 12 906. In fifteen of the western counties the excess was 10 407. In the fifty-nine counties from which returns were given 126 809 persons voted and there were only 95 296 voters registered showing an excess of 31 513 votes over the number of voters registered.

In the late convention at Newport Mrs Isabella Beecher Hooker said that she hoped the first man she met on the other side of Jordan outside her family circle, would be Moses. Mrs Stanton being asked by a grave gentleman on the platform whom she would like to meet first said Jacob's wife.

EXCURSIONIST—(from Salt Lake)— Give me through tickets for fifteen grown persons and thirty-nine children." New Ticket Clerk — (from Massachusetts)— If it's a school or asylum we can make them cheaper to you. Excursionist— (indignantly)—"Sir! it's my own private family sir!"

Gold taken a marked rise s ce las report q ta t as the 23d being 141 $\frac{1}{2}$@143

Legal Tenders 3c

Money is rather scarce things not o gh so seriously check th an ty ime of trade. For loans of what ver nature the amount is small and rates of interest are therefore kept well up. The receipts from the . . . . . . State . . . . San Francisco . . . .

The balance of t le is largely . . . that is we buy vastly more in foreign markets than we export to them . . . .

On this subject the . . . . . . correspondent at San Francisco of the Sacramento Union under late Sept 16 says:

It is time that business men began to consider what is to be the ultimate result of this steady drain of gold from the east since the completion of the Pacific Railroad. It must be remembered that California is not alone in suffering from this cause. Oregon merchants and papers complain that the circulation of that State is almost exclusively silver owing to the pressing demand for gold from this State. The Moses Taylor brought $38 04 from Portland on her last trip. Nevada also suffers to some extent from the same cause. The worst feature of the case is that there is no source from whence to expect relief because the balance of trade is against us to nearly $40,000,000 per annum or in other words the wheat, flour wool wine, gold silver and everything else we can raise for export, is not sufficient to pay for what we import by that amount. Great stress is laid on the value of our wheat exports, because there is a large fleet of ships loaded with grain. These are not a drop in the bucket when paying our bills. Few people realize the fact that the 1 757 flasks of quicksilver brought by the last steamer from New York will require a large cargo of wheat to pay for . . . . . . Estimating each of those firkins at 100 lbs at 30c ℔ lb, their value foots up $5,716. The cargo of the M . . . . 23 120 centals of good wheat is only valued at $66 860. A few car loads of boots and shoes dry goods . . . . . . brought by the railroad absorbs the value of a fleet of grain ships at the present price of grain . . . . . . of treasure. The whole value of our exports . . . . . . last year is only $616 800 while the imports by . . . . . . road exceed $2,000 000. It is a very serious matter indeed worthy the consideration of every prudent man to know what is to be the result of such a system continued for the purpose of keeping up the interest on money and for the benefit of speculators.

The Produce market is extremely dull and prices generally are disposed to drop. Wheat is only kept up to 75c per bushel by the failure of the farmers to send any into the market thus perpetuating what was at first thought only a temporary want. The demand is not by any means large but while it remains unsupplied, buyers will give the present quotations. Within a month the figures will be reduced without a doubt. Flour has gone down to $5 25 per bbl. for best extra brands while all inferior brands have fallen still further. Bacon is also dropping sides quotable at 1 c and hams at 18@20c. Lard is 2c lower. Dried apples 1c lower. Ground food has gone down to $25 per ton.

The merchandise market for the past week has been unusually active. Quotations for most goods remain unchanged. Burning oils have suddenly advanced and are stiff at our quotations. Salt is in large supply, and Carmen Island, Ground Rock and Bay are considerably reduced.

Retail trade is, generally, very quiet.

In the matter of freights upon goods imported, the Pacific railroad is already making its influence felt. To illustrate. The importing house of L. Goldsmith & Co has received lately several cases of light woolen and dry goods from New York by railroad. The cases averaged a measurement of 65 feet, for which the steamer freight would have been $1 50 in gold, per foot or $97 50 per case. The railroad freight was 6½c per lb, currency. The cases averaged 400 lbs. The cost was therefore per case $26 currency. The difference to the importer and through him to the consumer in favor of railroad transportation, is therefore $106 75 currency on each case. This very marked difference will of course give the railroad the bulk of carriage for all light goods.

Wheat in New York quoted at $1 70@1 72. Flour—unchanged—$6 50@9 50.

Liverpool—flour fluctuating last quotation 10s 10d.

San Francisco Produce market—rates per telegraph—Flour—quiet; Oregon brands of extra, range from $5 20 to 5 62½, shipping extra, $4 25@5 45. Wheat—dull at $1 60@1 55 for fair to good shipping; low grades are almost unsaleable at $1@1 05. choice shipping $1 60. Barley—dull at 90@95c; old quoted at $1 10@1 25. Oats—range of market, $1@1 30.

We make the following extracts from the Commercial Herald of the 17th inst:

Contrary to predictions freely thrown out by those extensively engaged in the business our wheat receipts from the interior continue in excess of any previous year, for a corresponding period, notwithstanding the low stage of water on the San Joaquin river and its tributaries, thus placing an effectual embargo upon the immense surplus of wheat now waiting transportation to market. The great bulk of which is now sacked and corded up along the bank of water-courses throughout the valley of that extensive wheat growing section, and cannot reach tide water until our winter rains set in. The amount of wheat received through the California Pacific railroad centering at Vallejo is considerable already fifteen ships have loaded at that depot, and it is probable that many others will have dispatch therefrom before the close of the season.

The market is entirely bare of bacon prices have therefore advanced to high rates for all jobbing lots. Orders for any quantity cannot be executed at any price. Hams are also in moderate supply. Lard is very scarce. Of pork the demand is light were it otherwise supplies of all kinds would long since have been exhausted, as at best, we have but two or three hundred bbls. Mess and Clear in the city and that is old Eastern. The local supply of Mess beef is about equal to the demand.

Wool of the fall clip arrives very sparingly. The low rates prevailing are scarcely remunerative to the grower, consequently, the clip will probably be . . . less than last season. Hides are yet scarce—not equal to the export requirement to say nothing of the large local demand for manufacturers. Our leather continues to command increased attention abroad wherever its superior qualities become known. Tallow is still scarce barely sufficient for the supply of our local candle and soap manufacturers prices are unchanged.

The receipts of certain articles of Oregon produce from January 1st to date have been as follows: Flour qr sks 075 226 wheat sks 29 140 oats sks 56 520 barley sks 240; salmon, bbls 1 140 hf bbls 1 306 cs 16 950 pkgs 1 404; bacon pkgs 4 150; beef bbls 453 butter pkgs 515 cheese pkgs 12 hams pkgs 338 lard pkgs 1 504 pork bbls 835 dried apples pkgs 3,729; pig iron tons, 825.

Case salmon from the North continues in good supply the sales of which in this market are limited packers preferring to export the same on their own account. We however, quote the same at $2 25@5 25 per doz for 1 and 2 lb tins, respectively. Salmon in bbls we quote at $9 75@10 hf bbls $5 50@6, with sales of 250 kgs.

ENDORSEMENTS.

OLYMPIA W T March 27 1869

C A WHITE, Esq.—Dear Sir: Having examined your original map embracing that portion of Washington Territory west of the Cascade Range, I desire to add my testimony to its value. Having been engaged for a number of years in the surveys from Cape Flattery to the Head of Puget Sound, I have examined this portion of your map more critically than others and I take pleasure in vouching for its general correctness.

This map will fill a want that has long been felt, not only among the residents of this Territory but others, who are desirous of obtaining information of this portion of the "Far West" and I trust that we shall soon see it in a form suitable for general distribution.

JAS S LAWSON,
Asst. U S C S

We endorse the annexed opinion of Jas S Lawson Esq and will add that Mr Chas A White is a practical Surveyor and has had access to the township maps in the two Land Offices in this Territory and also the Coast Survey charts; and we can vouch for his map of Washington Territory, west of the Cascade Range of Mountains as being correct and the only good map of the same territory that has been made.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female are there who are suffering from the effects of secret indulgences, absorbed into the system. Look at their pallid and disfigured faces and their broken constitutions disqualifying them for the happiness of life or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid state thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Parents guardians friends attend to those who are . . . any of these horrible life-destroying maladies . . . they are cured for and cured before it be too late . . . them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, . . . made private diseases his especial study for . . . is certain to cure the most inveterate cases . . . cury or any injurious drugs. It is important . . . who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of the many . . . landed doctors who infest all cities, publishing . . . in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing on the public by using the names of eminent physicians . . . THE APPETITE FOR TOBACCO DESTROYED!

LEAVE OFF SMOKING AND CHEWING THE POISONOUS WEED, TOBACCO.

ORTON'S PREPARATION.

ESTABLISHED 1866.

One box of Orton's Preparation is warranted to destroy the appetite for Tobacco, in any person no matter how strong the habit may be. If it fails in any case the money will be refunded. It is perfectly safe and harmless to all. It is almost impossible to break off the use of Tobacco by the mere exercise of the will. Something is needed to assist nature in overcoming a habit so firmly rooted. With the help of the Preparation, there is not the least trouble. . . . . . have been used it who bear witness to the fact that Orton's Preparation completely destroys the appetite for Tobacco, and leaves the person as free from any desire for it as he was before he commenced its use. The Preparation acts directly upon the same glands and secretions affected by Tobacco, and through these upon the blood, thoroughly cleansing the poison of Tobacco from the system and thus allaying the unnatural cravings for Tobacco. No more hankering for Tobacco after using Orton's Preparation. Recollect it is . . .

The time taken to allay all desire for Tobacco, by the use of the Preparation varies slightly in different persons, the average time being about Five days. Some have no desire for Tobacco whatever after using it Two days.

The Health and Purse of every Tobacco user in the country calls loudly ABANDON THE USE OF THE WEED.

The following are a few selected from the recommendations in our possession.

We, the undersigned, hereby certify that we have used Orton's Preparation for the purpose of destroying the appetite for Tobacco and can assure those who are suffering from this habit that Orton's Preparation will entirely destroy the appetite for Tobacco, quickly and permanently and without any bad effect upon the health, and without creating an appetite either for the use of any . . . . . .

From Samuel Cassidy Editor Journal & Argus

PETALUMA CALIFORNIA Dec . .

For about twenty years I had used Tobacco in its various forms and for the past eight years have been an inveterate smoker. Becoming satisfied that its excessive use of this narcotic was seriously affecting my health I determined if possible to check . . . habit. Hearing of Orton's Preparation for destroying the appetite for Tobacco I sent to Portland, Maine for a box of the medicine, which I received and commenced on the 17th of November. A month has now elapsed, yet the medicine has effectually relieved me of all yearning or desire to use Tobacco in any form. The Preparation is not more difficult or unpleasant to take than to commence chewing gum. I unhesitatingly believe the Preparation will have the promised effect in every instance where it is given a fair trial. Upon that belief and from an honest desire to aid all who wish to break away from the slavish habit of Tobacco I offer this testimonial.
